

Useful Links:

3 modules for a London trust. They are aimed at frontline staff as a basic introduction to homelessness and inclusion, and to do the basics: <https://www.pathway.org.uk/resources/learning-resources/inclusion-health-in-hospital/>

Some resources for nurses: <https://www.pathway.org.uk/resources/learning-resources/homeless-hospital-discharge-nursing/>

Also, this training module was well received by A&E colleagues who were part of the pilot. An effort to help staff respond better to more complex and challenging behaviours: <https://www.pathway.org.uk/publication/trauma-informed-communication-skills-training-report-of-a-pilot-project/>

An example from the nurse in the Hull Pathway Team, on how to work with hospital security staff: <https://vimeo.com/channels/homelesshealth/525328315>

This is an overview paper for ED: <https://www.pathway.org.uk/publication/meeting-the-needs-of-homeless-people-attending-the-emergency-department/>

And this reviews efforts to provide access to legal advice to destitute homeless patients: <https://www.pathway.org.uk/publication/providing-legal-advice-to-destitute-homeless-patients-in-london-evaluation-report/>

Salford: <https://emmaus.org.uk/salford/our-services/the-peoples-pods/>