

Healthy London Partnership - Children and Young People's Programme

#AskAboutAsthma: Vision into reality

Tuesday, 21st November: 0900 – 1700

Coin Street Neighbourhood Centre, 108 Stamford Street, South Bank, London SE1 9NH

Time	Topic	Speaker
0830	Registration and coffee	-
The Vision
0900 - 0905	Welcome	David Finch, Medical Director, North West London and acting Clinical Lead, Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership
0905 - 0915	A vision for transforming asthma care across London	Martin Wilkinson, Chief Officer, NHS Lewisham CCG and joint SRO, Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership
0915 - 0935	Achievements to date and planning next steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tracy Parr, Head of Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership Sara Nelson, Programme Lead, Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership
0935 - 0950	Reducing pollution – practical solutions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Michelle Johnston, Director of Nursing (Babies, Children and Young People), Barts Health NHS Trust Lindsey Jarratt, Sustainability Programme Coordinator, Barts Health NHS Trust
0950 - 1005	Caleb's story	Hannah Harniess, Interim Programme Director, Digital Health London
1005 - 1020	The role of the London Ambulance Service in asthma management	Richard Iles, Consultant, children's respiratory medicine, Evelina London Children's Hospital and asthma clinical advisor for Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership
1020 - 1045	Coffee break
System transformation to date – what we can learn
1045 - 1100	Transport for London's work around air quality	Helen Asquith, Public Health Specialist, Transport for London
1100 - 1120	Commissioning and delivering an integrated approach to asthma care	Stephen Goldring, Consultant Paediatrician, The Hillingdon Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
1120 - 1135	The role of pharmacists in asthma management	Donal Markey, Pharmacy Lead, NHS England
1135 - 1150	Staff asthma education programme in an acute trust	Michael Clift, Lead Practice Educator – Children's services. Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust
1150 - 1300	Making better use of other resources in the system: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improving inhaler techniques and asthma reviews Using interactive tools in schools Using asthma as a way of engaging CYP in design technology Group discussion re implications for local transformation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Richard Goodwin, Pharmacy Lead: Children and Young People's Health Partnership, Evelina London Children's Hospital Gioia Mosler, Outreach and Learning Manager, School-based Asthma Project, Centre for Genomics and Child Health, Queen Mary University of London Ian Hosking, Senior Research Associate Engineering Design Centre, University of Cambridge
	Whole System Transformation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pharmacy asthma support service Population health: H&F Asthma in Islington Group discussion re implications for local transformation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bipin Patel, Community Pharmacist, Bexleyheath and Karen Upton, GP, Bexley Chad Hockey, GP, Hammersmith & Fulham Catherine Lad, Children's Commissioning Manager, NHS Islington CCG
1300 - 1400	Lunch and networking
Turning the vision into reality locally
1400 - 1420	The mental health and wellbeing of those with asthma	John Green, Chief Psychologist at Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust
1415 - 1435	Turning vision into reality at STP level: the North Central London experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Charlotte Pomeroy, SRO for the Children and Young People's workstream at North London Partners in Health and Care Kathryn Collin, Commissioning Lead, NHS Haringey CCG & NCL STP Programme Lead for CYP
1435 - 1455	Developing asthma networks using the severe asthma CQUIN	Louise Fleming, Honorary consultant in paediatric respiratory medicine, Royal Brompton and Harefield NHS Foundation Trust
1455 - 1610	Developing a local action plan to turn the vision into reality To include working tea break	Breakout session; one table for each STP area To include time for feedback to whole room
Looking to the future
1610 - 1640	The role of social movements and large scale change/implications for asthma in London	Leigh Kendall Communications Lead, NHS Horizons
1640 - 1700	Closing remarks	Tracy Parr, Head of Children and Young People's Programme, Healthy London Partnership