

Patient has an URGENT dental problem such as:

- Dental pain which does not respond to over the counter painkillers
- Dental swelling
- Dental trauma such as a knocked out or broken tooth which is painful
- Bleeding following dental extraction which cannot be controlled by the patient

Does the patient have a dentist?

Yes, they are seen by the homeless dental services in London

- Contact the service they are under:
1. Whittington Health NHS Trust Community Dental services at Crowndale or Finsbury Health Centres Tel: 0203 316 8353
  2. Kings College Hospital NHS Mobile Van (South London) Contact via NHS 111
  3. Kent Community Health Foundation Trust Mobile Van (East London) Tel: 0330 1239 438
  4. Central London Community Healthcare NHS at Great Chapel Street Clinic. Tel: 020 7437 9360

Yes

Contact the patient's dentist who will advise over the phone

No

Call NHS 111

Alternatively

- Contact one of the following services weekdays 9am-12pm:
1. Kings College Hospital Acute Dental Care Department Tel: 0203 2995608
  2. Guy's Hospital Acute Dental Care Department Tel: 020 7188 4396