

Case Study: South West London Hub

Staffed by clinical psychologists and support staff, who undertake a holistic assessment and provide brief interventions to offer immediate support before signposting or referring the staff member to appropriate services.

Wider resources such as debt advice, domestic abuse support, bereavement services and relationship support services would also be available for onward referral.

Repeat offers will be made to ensure that staff remain aware of the service if they choose not to engage when first offered.